

Ellerton

Directions

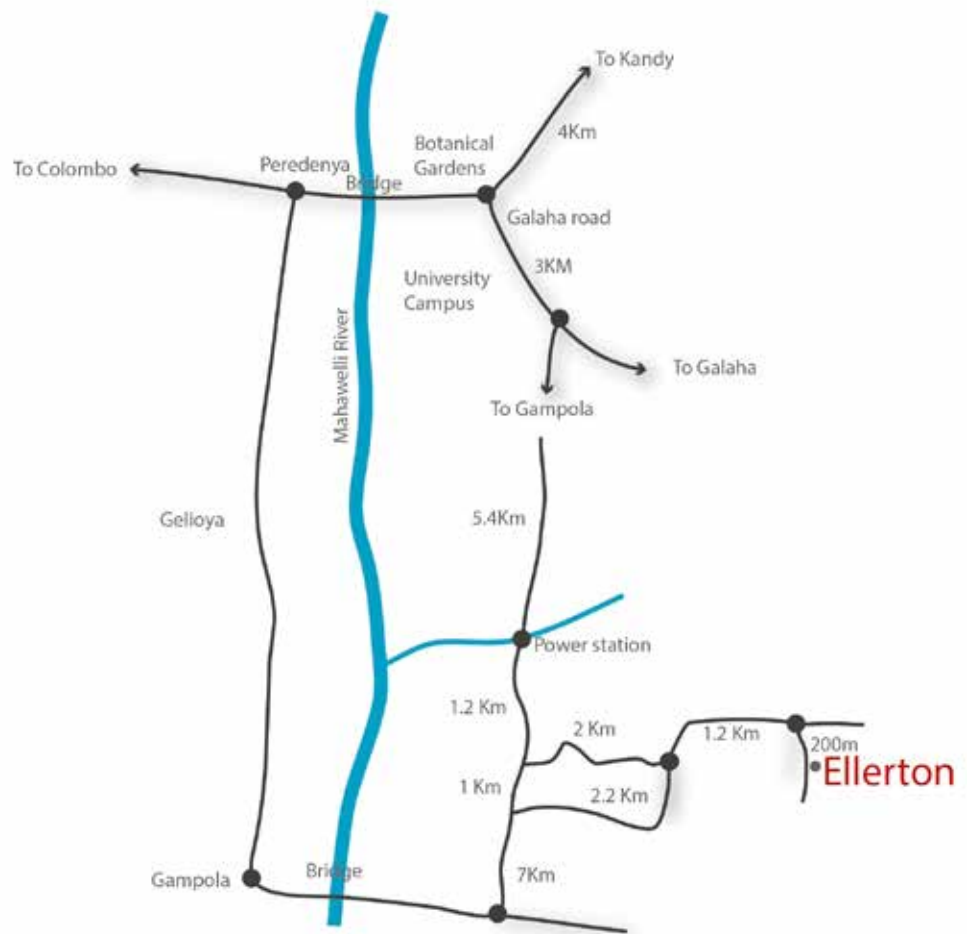

Ellerton is approximately 18km south of central Kandy.

From Colombo you will come in at Peradeniya; cross the river; and at the roundabout take the road towards Galaha and the university.

From Kandy: take the Peradeniya road, which goes due south out of Kandy; come to the first roundabout, and then (as above) to the second roundabout – i.e. towards Galaha and the university. The road goes through the university campus, and 3.5km from the second roundabout is a “Y” junction; take the right hand road, signposted to Gampola.

After 5.4 km you cross a river with a small power station on the left.

1.2 km after the bridge you will see a good tarmac road just after a tuc-tuc stand rising to your left. There is a sign for Ellerton. The road is steep, but the surface excellent and after about 2 km, you will come to a T-junction where you should turn left. Follow this road for 1.2 km, and you will see a concrete road, again signed Ellerton on your right. After 200 m you will see the Ellerton gates on your left.

From the Hill Country and

Gampola:

Immediately before the bridge leading to Gampola town, you will see a right turn to Peradeniya. After approximately 6 km you will come to a small township (the only one on this road), Doluwa. At the end of the township you will see a good tarmac road rising steeply to the right. Take this road, and follow it for approximately 3.4 kms and then you will see the concrete road, as above, leading to Ellerton on your right.
